SUPPLEMENT

1. The Nationalists do not occupy or intend to occupy the Suiho Dam power plant which is on the Korean side of the Yalu River. Technically, the Nationalists (garble) [?] control the dam to the middle of the river.

25X1X6

2. The Soviets furnish the Nationalists with power on a monthly basis for which payment is made in large quantities of foodstuffs. Because the Nationalists are unable to meet the next payment, they fear that negotiations for future supply of power will be difficult.
